AMWAY™ PRODUCTS ON THE INTERNET & RETAIL SHOPS

You may find sellers of Amway products in online shops/marketplaces (e.g. Lazada, Shopee and Carousell) and non-Amway retail shops. These sellers have no connection to Amway Malaysia, Amway Singapore, nor Amway Brunei. Amway Business Owners (ABOs) are the only authorised sellers of Amway products. Amway has built its business on the integrity and reputation of our products and ABOs.

These unauthorised sellers, especially on the Internet, may appear very professional. However, Amway has not authorised them to sell our products nor use our trademarks, logos and photos. These sellers do not have the product knowledge that our ABOs have, and they are illegally using Amway trademarks, logos and photos.

Buying from these sellers also puts you at risk of receiving products that could be used, second-hand, out-of-date, spoiled, damaged, altered or even counterfeit. To ensure that you are buying authentic Amway products – purchase from an authorised ABO. Please educate and protect yourself. Amway can only offer support and assistance to customers who have purchased their products directly from authorised ABOs.

As a member of the Direct Selling Association of Singapore (DSAS), Amway Singapore also upholds the “Consumer Protection” provisions under Singapore Multi-level Marketing and Pyramid Selling (Prohibition) Act and the DSAS Code of Ethics and Conduct.
