A GUIDE FOR ABOS ON ACCURATE AND COMPLIANT BUSINESS REPRESENTATIONS

Responsible Income, Lifestyle & Business Opportunity Claims

Income, lifestyle and business opportunity stories can inspire others — but they must be truthful, accurate, and not misleading. Every claim you share reflects Amway’s integrity. Misleading or exaggerated content, even unintentionally, may breach the Rules of Conduct, Quality Assurance Standards and Digital Communication Standards.

PRESENTING THE AMWAY BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

How one describes the business matters. The Amway Business Opportunity must always be presented as a legitimate direct selling business built on product sales and mentoring others to do the same, not as a job, franchise or investment scheme.

Income Claims

Talking about the Amway income is an important part of showing how the Amway business works. However, it must always reflect real performance and accurate context. Statements related to income should help prospects understand opportunity, not create unrealistic expectations.

Lifestyle Representations

Lifestyle content can inspire others, but it must represent your true experience, not an exaggerated version of success. Showing what is possible through hard work is fine, as long as it does not suggest automatic or guaranteed wealth.

Key Reminders

Compliance is not just about following the rules. It protects trust and reputation. Each message you share shapes how others view Amway and your business. Always review your content before posting to ensure it is truthful, respectful and compliant.

Be truthful and accurate.

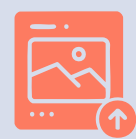

Show results responsibly.

Protect confidentiality & professionalism.

Present the business correctly.

Review before you post.

COMPLIANCE BUILDS CREDIBILITY. CREDIBILITY BUILDS YOUR BUSINESS.
